9. QUESTION: (INCLUDE SCENARIO IF NEEDED FOR CLARITY):

ACL 14-56, page 3, under MCE Ineligibility states, "CF households are subject to the same conditions that result in ineligibility as all other CE households." It then lists the following scenarios that are not CE and subject to all CF eligibility requirements: Any household member who is disqualified for an IPV; The head of household not complying with work requirements; any member of the household convicted of a drug-related felony.

CE Also does not apply to child support sanctioned persons, fleeing felons, probation/parole violators or timed out individuals. Should they also be included on the list of people not eligible to MCE?

10. REQUESTOR'S PROPOSED ANSWER:

We would like to assume that those not eligible for CE: child support sanctioned persons, fleeing felons, probation/parole violators or timed out individuals are also ineligible to MCE. We cannot make this assumption without guidance since some are listed in ACL and others are not.

11. STATE POLICY RESPONSE (CFPB USE ONLY):

The State concurs with the requestor's proposed response; anything that would make a CalFresh household ineligible to CE would also make a CalFresh household ineligible to MCE.
